

Ecomuseum of the Mont lozere "Ecomusée du mont Lozère"

Gîtes, inns, tourist activities, local products: so many things await you in the Mont Lozère area. Its inhabitants want you to fall in love with their realm. The Mont Lozère Eco-Museum and its partners want to share their passion with you and help you make authentic connections and discoveries.

Mont Lozère is a granite massif scattered with typical reliefs called felsenmeer (block fields). Water is omnipresent in springs, peat bogs and rivers. The bare crests are summer pastures for great flocks of sheep. Mont Lozère bears the signs of ancient human occupation: menhirs, Gallo-Roman vestiges, etc.
