

Grotte de la Salamandre

Your attention please!

The Grotte de la Salamandre is one of the most beautiful cave in Europe. It has open its doors to visitors since June, 1st 2013.

The Grotte de la Salamandre, an enormous underground cavity, is the dimension of a football stadium and its periphery is adorned with crystals -- each one more stunning than the next in regards to their form, texture, beauty, and dimension.

From the panoramic viewpoint, accesible to wheelchairs, to the Grand Rappel going through the fascinating guided visit, choose the way you want to find out this huge and amazing enlightened concretions.

We have chosen to reveal these treasures in the form of 12 distinct scenes driven by a fluent dynamic staging that will not fail to stimulate the imagination of the visitors immersed in this underground fantasy.

A nice wood construction shelters a small shop where you will find original articles as well as a refreshment area where you will be able to rest while drinking a little something on the terrace overlooking the preserved garrigue.
